Dear Miss Gilpin:

It was pleasant to speak to you yesterday and to hear your recollections of Mrs. Kasebier. I have sent you a copy of my article about Mrs. Kasebier in a separate envelope. I will appreciate any ideas or information you can add to what I have written.

I look forward to hearing from you and to seeing copies of your letters from Mrs. Kasebier. I would appreciate your sending them to me at home: 336 Central Park West
New York, N. Y. 10025.

Of course I will reimburse your expenses in having the letters copied.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

Barbara L. Michaels
