Dear Laura:

Thank you for your kind letter of 17 March.

I'm afraid my intent must not have been clear enough.

I would like very much to purchase a print of "The Rio Grande: River of Destiny" (1947). The officials at the Nelson Art Gallery said to write you directly, which I did on 24 February.

My question concerns whether it is possible to obtain a copy of this photograph, and how. The gallery said you still printed copies for sale. If so, I'd like very much to have one for my very own. As I last wrote, it touched me deeply.

Sorry to hear you were ill. Wishing you a speedy recovery, I am

Sincerely yours,

David Redmon

p.s. I'm happy you liked my poem.
