Dear Miss Gilpin:

Enclosed is a copy of our Hispanic Crafts of the Southwest exhibition catalogue. We are most grateful to you for allowing us to print your photograph of the Chimayo weaver. It seemed to us to capture the feeling we wanted this exhibition to convey, so we put it on the cover. Everyone here is very pleased with the results, and we hope you are too.

This is the first major publication of the Taylor Museum in many years, and we are glad your work is included in it.

My very best wishes to you for Christmas and the New Year.

Sincerely,

William Wroth
Curator
Taylor Museum
