Dear Ms. Gilpin,

The International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House is currently compiling a cookbook of photographers' favorite recipes. We would be delighted to receive a recipe of yours for possible inclusion in this collection. Each recipe must, of course, meet our rigorous standards of culinary excellence (i.e., it must be somewhat edible). We also hope to publish one vaguely appropriate photograph with each recipe included in the book.

Please send your recipe, and any suggestions, to:
