Dear Ms. Gilpin:

Nearly a year ago we began work on our Southwest exhibit contrasting the adaptation of the Navajo and Hopi to the high desert environment. I wrote to you a few times and even visited your studio and had a long talk with your secretery. We've finally finished our exhibit, and I thought you might like to see how it turned out. I've enclosed a few photos for you to keep. Wishing you the very best.

Sincerely yours,
Nancy Bronstein
