Dear Laura Gilpin:

This is just a short note to tell you that I heard from my friends at the Amon Carter Museum that they will be the recipient of your archive. I hasten to write to you, to tell you that I think you could find no better recipient for your work than the Amon Carter Museum! I know that they are able to and willing to care for your work as few institutions in the United States are, and I congratulate you on the choice.

I heard that your exhibition in Fort Worth was a great success, and that they even made a video-tape interview with you. I hope on my next trip to Fort Worth to see it, or even possibly to borrow it for use here at Yale.

I hope this finds you in very good health, and I hope that your new work on the Canyon de Chelle is going very well. I look forward to seeing it in print in fact.

With warmest regards,

James D. Burke
Curator of Prints and Photographs
