Dear Miss Gilpin,

I am sorry to hear that you will be unable to attend the opening of your retrospective exhibition, March 17, at the Cowboy Hall of Fame. I do understand and wish you the best recovery possible.

We have had a great deal of interest in the exhibition already and I am sure it will be a success. Through our museum, we are trying to offer the public exposure to the best photography available and I know this show will be a highlight in our program.

Once again, thank you for calling and for all your help concerning the exhibition. I look forward to seeing you around March 6 when we pick up the photographs in Santa Fe.

Cordially,

Jon M. Burris
Director of Photography
