Dear Ms. Gilpin,

I was in Oklahoma City at the Cowboy Hall of Fame two weeks ago where I had the tremendous pleasure of seeing your photographic exhibit. It has been quite an inspiration to me to continue with my own photography and I thought you should be aware of the joy that seeing your show brought to me.

As I walked through the museum, I couldn't keep my mind on the other artists' works, so I finally asked if perhaps your books were on sale there, too. I was able to purchase an autographed copy of The Enduring Navaho. I have it in my office where others may also enjoy it. I am so glad to be able to own a copy and hope that you will be publishing others since I understand that you have not slowed down but just a little bit since becoming an octogenarian.

Could you take the time to reply to my questions? I would like to know if you are still working on the color photographs of the beautiful mesas outside of Santa Fe. Would it be possible to visit with you sometime in person? I would sincerely like to meet you and talk with you about the work you have accomplished in your lifetime.

Sincerely yours,
Georgia N. Carr
