Dear Mr. Bundy;

A little time has elapsed since your visit here to the studio and Laura has had some time to think about your offer to trade prints with her. The day you were here she was not feeling very well and later she regretted offering prints to you that she felt were not good quality. She has asked me to write for her as she has been very busy and also has not felt quite well yet. She wishes you to know that she was grateful for your offer to trade with her, but she does prefer not to trade, except under very special conditions. If at any time in the future you wish to purchase copies of the prints you desired, you may certainly do so, if they are available. The 8 x 10 silverprints are $100 and platinum prints are $500 at this time. It does appear that in the very near future the prices will be raised, to what extent I am not sure.

Thankyou very much for your interest in Miss Gilpin's work.

Sincerely,

Sina Brush
