Dear Mr. Morey;

Your letter to Miss Gilpin referring to an old order has been sent to me to answer. I handled the sales of work from her show at Fine Arts, as at the time, I was working at the museum. Later I came to work for Miss Gilpin, and continued to handle sales of things from that show and other exhibits, plus the gallery here. When your print was ready to be sent to you, about 2 years ago, I sent you a note and you responded that you could not afford the print. That image was then sold to someone else. Since the Museum of New Mexico was the recipient of 25% of the sale price, the $25 you sent was payment to the museum. Nonetheless, you find enclosed $25 from Miss Gilpin, as the Museum would not reimburse you at this point. The price of that print is now $150. If you wish to buy it, please send us a check for that plus $5 for shipping. I am sorry that we cannot sell the print for less, but your answer was a cancellation and all orders from that show have long been gone. Thankyou very much for your interest in Miss Gilpin's work.

Sincerely,

Sina Brush-Morales
