Dear Laura Gilpen
and Sina Brush

Thanks very much for your letter, This was a surprise because it was quite some time ago I wrote you a letter.

I just came back from England I followed a very interesting workshop with Paul Caponigro this was at Paul Hill's photographers' place, it was quite an experience. I did not know what to expect, but it was more than I had expected. Paul Caponigro is of a high character and a sincere person. We saw his new portefolio on 'stonehenge'.
I spoke with him about your book, he said I should write you again! But this was not needed, a letter was waiting for me.

Concerning your book: I had asked for your book in Amsterdam at a Photo-gallery's bookshop, they told me it was out of print.
I will tell them your book is re-printed, may be they like to have more copies. Do they have to contact you? Please let me know. In that case I will get your book in Holland.

I wish you, Laura, success with your gallery. Quite a job.
We have been running a gallery four four years, with contemporary art and photography. But now I have decided to concentrate completely on my photography. The gallery was taking all my time gradually.

I wish you success and all the best

Yoke Matze
