Dear Laura Gilpin,

Your striking photograph of Picuris church arrived this week; I am taking it in to be framed today and can hardly wait to place it on a wall where it will be enjoyed by all.

On our way to Taos, Dr. Woodward had our bus driver detour so that we could see Picuris. We have some nice color slides of it which will be among those we show next Sunday at our New Mexico reunion party.

We have photos of all of our children, of my sister and myself and my husband and his brother by Imogen Cunningham — and now a beautiful Laura Gilpin. Sincerely,

Vinny Reinhardt
