

Dear, dear Laura

I think of you often and wish to see you - Please, dear, forward this check to the Indians of your choice - I send small checks to so many & thus regrets I am afraid I miss the most important!

This year has changed the family out of any semblance to the past - I believe my darling

Kay will come through - with his sweet very young wife. He and Holly have taken off for a flesh week-end in N. Y. to shop, go to the theatres and have a short - young honey-moon! Jaxon and Jessica are still at New York after a few gay days in Paris. Our Christmas table expects 18 sitters including my first great grand son Tommy who began this at Thanks giving when he ate everything except mince pie which we firmly kept from him. 'Hed me at table in his high chair. He drank champagne from his Christmas cup - just after his Christmas at Thanks giving?

We always wish for you too, dear Laura!

Love and Merry Christmas
