Dear Marni:

Thank you for yours of Aug. 24, which I just received. Pony Express has decided difficulties with burrs, which attack the horses, slowing them down. Rugged West!.

Am glad you are coming early. Laura is improving, now that we have discovered two chemical medicaments which caused more damage than good. Since one of them has been eliminated, about ten days ago, her memory is better, and she is much more herself. With luck, she should be really in good shape. I presume you have heard the last session on tape, the one about the Navaho Medicine man, so you know how worried I was. She is now much better.

I am leaving my schedule open for the time you will be here. I imagine Laura will want to see you immediately, but if you arrive early enough on Friday, we could dine together, or any other time. I, for one, am playing it by ear, no script.

It will be a pleasure to meet you. In whatever way I can help, I will, of course.

Sincerely,

Margaret
