THE VOICE OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN EMPIRE

Dear Ms. Gilpin:

I am a reporter for The Denver Post, and am interested in doing a feature story on you and your gallery for our Sunday magazine, Contemporary.

As your secretary, Ms. Brush, might have explained, I (and photographer Lyn Alweis) plan to be in Santa Fe the week of Sept. 16 working on some other stories for The Post. Ms. Brush indicated it would be best to contact you then to set up an interview at your convenience.

We both are looking forward to meeting you, and hope we will have the opportunity to do a story, as I am certain there would be much reader interest in a woman such as yourself.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Katie Dean
