Dear Mrs. Spiritus;

Miss Gilpin has asked me to reiterate the policy of selling prints from our gallery, as you evidently did not receive my letter of a few weeks ago regarding this matter. The list you gave her on the phone this morning leads us to believe you do not have this information on file:

1. We no longer sell to dealers at at a discount.
2. We no longer send prints out on approval.
3. We send out work after receipt of complete payment, including shipping.
4. Prices are as follows: 8 x 10 $200
11 x 14 $300 16 x 20 $350. Prices are subject to change without notice.

We will be glad to fill what orders we can, upon complete payment of desired prints. This letter should prevent further confusion about sales of prints.

Thankyou,

Sina Brush
