Dear Laura,

Thank you so much for the reminder on the print
"Storm over La Bajada Hill, New Mexico." In answer, I can say no, definitely, we have not received it.
Hope it has not become lost in the mail; that would be terrible.

As for the question, are we still interested, the answer is a resounding yes. As I remember the occasion, both Margery and myself felt it to be a very good choice from the show at Helen's Focus Gallery and we said so, although I don't remember that title or the circumstances surrounding the idea of your giving a print of it to the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art collection. Since then, communications have broken down, too much going on I suppose. At any rate, the print has not been sent; by all means, do send it along with all particulars. We will deal with it from there as if it were a new idea.

In the mean time, again thank you for "Taos Ovens" and the good strong addition of your works through the gift of them out of Margery's collection, which we have, thanks to Tom Vasey.

On Ansel, all seems to be going as well as could be hoped for. Good solid stock there. All good wishes for you in the ever present battle with time.

Cheers,

John Humphrey
