Dear Laura:

It is hard to thank you adequately for all of your help and assistance during the last ten days. You were very kind to put up with us for so long. I only hope it won't take you too long to recover from all the commotion.

All of us feel that we have the makings of a very fine film. Of course, you warrant nothing less. The film crew left Santa Fe with a deep sense of admiration for you and we are all determined to convey that in the film.

Your friends and household staff were extremely helpful to us during our stay, and I am grateful to them for their cooperation.

To the thanks of the film crew, I would like to add my personal thanks. I had a wonderful time visiting with you. It is easy to see why all of your friends have become so devoted to you. I shall always be grateful for the week we had together.

Take care. I'll keep you posted on the progress of the film.

Warmest regards,

Marni
