Dear Laura:

Just wanted you to know how much we appreciated the time you spent with us last Friday in Santa Fe. Also, how interesting it was for us to catch up on our Colorado history. Although I couldn't find a copy of your book on Chichen-Itza in Santa Fe, I hope to pick one up the next time I go to New York. The photographs you took of this area are extremely important to Pre-Columbian scholars, as so much of the site has already deteriorated.

I will hope to place the photograph of Marion Hendrie's mother in the Denver Art Museum collection which would be a fitting tribute to her daughter's vision and desire to help this growing institution.

Once again, both Ted and I wanted you to know how much we enjoyed meeting you and we congratulate Colorado College in honoring such a great lady.

Yours sincerely,

Joyce R. Strauss
