

sometimes I think we all like to punish ourselves emotionally too much. There is more need for us to read about and learn about the History of the American Indian and the white settlers than there is for us to go around feeling badly about it, dont you agree?

Some day a young Navajo named Harvey Begay and his Pretty Anglo wife (from Connecticut) may drop in on you. They live in

Window Rock and he is running Southwestern Indian Development - practically single handed. He told them about your work, and they would like to meet you.

Again, thank you for your beautiful photographs. We will always treasure them and will remember our visit with you with great pleasure.
With best wishes,

Nora Tutkell