

Dec. 26, 1936.

Mr. Heyworth Campbell,
325 East 72nd St.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Campbell:-

Your letter came in the midst of my usual Christmas rush and this is the first minute I have had to answer it.

I am interested in what you have to say about a new photographic publication, and also in a letter from Mr. Houston of the Galleon Press. If it is not too late I am most anxious to contribute to this, and am sending you to-morrow an assortment of prints for your selection.

This letter is off to-day airmail special delivery so that you will receive it to-morrow and know that the prints are on the way.

Thanking you and wishing you the best of success,
I am

Sincerely yours,