Dear Miss Gilpin:

The confusion attendant upon moving our offices has prevented me from acknowledging before this your very generous letter. It is indeed a pleasure to know that this once at least artist and editor are in accord.

I wonder if I could presume on your kindness to demand somewhat fuller technical data than you provided. I appreciate that this sort of thing means very little, but we are constantly plagued for it. I should therefore like to know, if possible, the camera, lens, aperture at which it operated, paper on which the print was made and any manipulation of the print.

Thank you for the suggested markets in the two stores which will be written to very shortly.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth Houston
