Dear Frank:

A very brief note to tell you that everything will be returned to you this coming week. There has been far more work than I realized, and I am just slow these days.

The Owings are here and I had a very nice visit from Margaret Friday. We went over all my possible color transparencies, and you will be receiving them along with the dummy, new prints, corrections, re-typed pages etc. The Oranunciation table should be back in a few days. I sent it over to Herbert Hatchford to do.

A long letter covering everything will follow with the dummy. In the meantime here's hoping that all goes well at your end. I hope your editor is at work on my mms. and that corrections or changes will be minor.

Hastily
