Mr. Frank Wardlaw,
University of Texas Press,
Austin, Texas.

Dear Frank:-

When I talked to Mrs. Spielman yesterday, I was glad to hear that you were home and that you had such a succesful trip.

To follow up what I asked Mrs. Spielman to relay to you was that the Quarterly Review of The Museum of New Mexico will have a special Navaho Centennial issue for this falls publication of El Palacio. They want to have a short pre-review of our book, stating the approximate publication date, the price, etc. and they wish to use one picture which I will furnish. This will be very valuable for us. But they need this by early next week. The issue will be out in late August or early September. All sorts of things are going on about the Centennial, including a re-enactment of The Long Walk (mostly by automobile!), though they did leave Fort Sumner on foot, and will reach Window Rock on foot with an occasional parade along the way. All this brings the Navaho into the news and in people's minds.

I hope all is going well and on schedule, and hoping that all goes smoothly from here on,

Most sincerely
