Dear Dave:-
Dear Steve

I am certainly glad to know that the book reached you safely.

As I recall Steve is about to be married and is coming this way on his honeymoon, so I am sending this to you. I have outside orders for five books, and as I need one to have on hand, I need to put in my order for six books. I will send you the money as soon as I get my U.T.P check! Right now I am winding up my income tax and don't dare getting lower. Can you check these. The last few I got seemed to very close to the cull line as some pages were so heavily inked that nearly all the detail in the pictures was gone.

I hope my check will be along very shortly. Sorry to have to ask for it, but work has been very slow. It doubtless will pick up when the tourists begin to come to town.

With best wishes,

Sincerely
