Dear Steve;

Inclosed please find my check for $110~~0~~, for which please send me 10 copies of the "Enduring Navajo".

When will you be coming this way again? I am hoping to move into my new quarters sometime this next month.
I am returning in a couple of days the end-papers that I had previously planned for the book in the hope that now they can be added for the new printing. When you were here last, you spoke of raising the price of the book to $25. Isn't it possible to hold it to $22.50?
This seems an awful jump.

Have you yet gotten to New York, and what contacts have you made there? Best wishes, and do let me know when the addition to your family arrives.

Cordially yours,

Laura Gilpin
