Dear Miss Gilpin:

Your books and photographs have arrived safely. They are all very beautiful. I am more enthusiastic than ever about the possibility of a book. As a matter of fact, I don't think there is any doubt about our being able to swing it.

I am going to be out of town nearly all of the month of June and won't be able to do anything substantial about your book until I return. Immediately after I end my wanderings I will get together with Mitchell Wilder, consult my Faculty Advisory Board, and make a formal proposal to you.

I wanted to have a meeting of the Faculty Advisory Board this week or next, but it is impossible for us to get together a quorum. The members who are not in the middle of final examinations have already left for foreign parts.

With all good wishes, I am

Very cordially yours,
