Dear Barbara:

Thank you for your letter of January 3 about The Enduring Navaho. I quite understand your decision although I am naturally a little disappointed. Perhaps we can place excerpts from this book with another periodical such as Look or Life. Anyhow, I'll take a shot at it.

I am very pleased that you and Joan like the book so much.

All the best,

Dear Frank:

We have thought carefully about The Enduring Navaho, but, impressed as we are, Joan's original reservations still hold. She feels that the pictures have too contemporary a look for our purposes -- no matter how beautiful they are -- and that it is just not appropriate for American Heritage to do this story.

So with many thanks, I'm returning the dummies. I do appreciate your trusting us with them. And I'm very sorry that we couldn't work out a way to use part of the book. It seems to me that it's going to be a beauty.

Yours,

Barbara
