Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your letter of June 12, asking about flyers for your book, The Enduring Navaho.

I am afraid whoever told you that flyers for the Navaho are available and have been distributed was misinformed. Letters have been sent by our sales manager to various book store owners advising them that flyers would be available and asking if they would want flyers imprinted with the name of their store. Very seldom are flyers ready before a book is published and often not until some time afterward. We will be glad to send flyers to anyone whom you suggest, just send us the names and addresses as you think of them.

Someone from the Sales Department will be writing to you about the displays at the Gallup Ceremonial and the Window Rock Fair. We have not received the page proofs yet, but I will send your sets as soon as they do arrive.

Thank you for sending the review of your Albuquerque show.
I enjoyed reading it. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Barbara Spielman
