Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your letter of August 6 concerning the last-minute corrections for The Enduring Navaho. Thank you, also, for returning Indexing Your Book.

We will change "volcanic cone" to "volcanic core" on page 15, in accordance with the geologists' terminology. We will add Old Lady Grey Salt to the Index, with "picture of" and the correct page number.

The trader whose daughter is a member of our staff is Mr. Jewel S. McGee, of the Red Rock Trading Post. His daughter is Mrs. Jeaneen Morris.

I will be sending the vandyke proofs to you as soon as they arrive here. Until then, best wishes to you.

Sincerely,

Barbara Spielman
