Dear Miss Gilpin:

We are sending you a complimentary copy of your book to replace the one you sent the Owings. The Press is pleased to send them five copies, which should go out from here ~~next~~ this week. Your remaining free copies (eight) should also reach you soon. The extra one will be probably arrive separately (and later) because I have sent the order for it at a later time.

Congratulations on your beautiful book.

Best wishes,

Margarette Sharpe
