Dear Laura:

Your book is still selling splendidly, at the rate of 200 copies per month, and it probably will continue to do so for some time to come. It is now obvious that we are going to get our money back and even realize a profit. Since this is the case, I feel that you should get the full 10 per cent trade royalties on all copies sold rather than the reduced scale we put into effect. Accordingly I am instructing our Business Manager to issue a supplementary royalty check to you representing the difference between 10 per cent of list price on all copies sold and the smaller amount you have received.

Your book is a success financially as well as artistically. We are very happy to have it on our list.

I hope you are well.

Very cordially yours,

Frank H. Wardlaw
Director
