Dear Laura:

Received your copy of the Museum of New Mexico newsletter the other day. About a month ago we communicated with the MNM P.R. Department in the hopes of having our exhibitions listed in their schedule, but I suspect that it was too late for the July issue.

I will follow up on the New Mexico Arts Commission lead; I don't really know why they have ignored us. Would you like to have the big print which was made in California as the entrance piece for the exhibition? I would be happy to bring it up any time.

Our attendance has been holding steady through June and July, and to date we have had approximately 2,928 people, all of which, I assume, have seen the exhibition. A fair amount of exposure I hope you will agree.

With warmest regards,

E. F. Crabtree
