LOAN CONDITIONS

1. The Museum shall exercise the same care in respect to loans as it does in the case of comparable objects forming a part of the Museum collection. No loans are insured by the Museum except as specifically noted on the face of this receipt.

2. Objects received as loans will be returned to the owner, his duly authorized agent, or a legal representative, according to prior written agreement or upon receipt of reasonable notice, in writing.

In the event of the death of the lender, his legal representative is requested to notify the Director of the Museum forthwith in writing, giving his full name and address together with a certified copy of his authority.

3. Objects accepted for exhibition shall remain in the possession of the Museum for the time specified by written agreement, but may be withdrawn from the exhibition at the discretion of the Museum.
4. The Museum reserves the right to photograph loans for publications, records, and for publicity purposes, and to make slides thereof for the Museum of Albuquerque slide archives. The Museum will not photograph or reproduce any photographic print without obtaining written permission from the lender or owner.
5. Any object left at the Museum for more than ten years automatically becomes an unconditional gift to the Museum.
6. If an object is offered as a gift and accepted by the Museum of Albuquerque, the Museum's gift agreement form will be sent for the donor's signature, at which time this loan agreement becomes null and void.
7. If any or all of the objects described on this receipt are accepted for purchase by the Museum, this receipt shall be void as to such objects, upon completion of the sale.
