Mr. Ned Hatathli.
Window Rock, Arizona.

Dear Ned:-

There seem to be other matters about which I do not have the information. I am listing them on a separate sheet for your convenience. I am going to use the two pictures I made at the Arts & Crafts Guild when you were running it. I tried twice to see Carl Gorman at the new building but I could not find him. I did obtain figures as to the volume of business, but I ask also for your verification of this as this comes under your department does it not?

You may recall that on past occasions I have tried to get you at work out in the field, but we could never manage to get together at the right time in the right place. But now that I am winding up the book, it seems to me good to use the early picture for you were the first Navaho to manage the Guild. Right? And was't the guild the first Navaho enterprise or was Sawmill started first? Probably the latter, but I am not sure. Anyway, I would greatly appreciate it if you would give me the answers to the enclosed questions. Since I got home, Mabel Morrow has been over all the part of my text and pictures of the crafts, really, almost the largest part of the book, and I have her approval on everything except on basketry, and you will find my questions on the list.

I am working very hard now, and am trying to have the text complete by the end of the month. I may not have all the final reproduction prints done, but at least the dummy with the completed text can go in, and the rest of the prints will follow shortly thereafter for I have most of them ready.

Would you be so kind as to let me know how to get in touch with you by phone so that I see my way to coming over a ain for a quick trip, I can call you for an appointment.

With the best of wishes,

Very Sincerely yours,

Dear Ned:-

There seem to be a few more pieces of information I need. I had them placed in a different part of the book, and they have to do with the Arts and Crafts Guild. Were you not the first Navaho to manage the Guild? This seems to be string in my memory but I do not have it written down. Nor do I have the date of the founding of the guild. I am using the pictures made of you

QUESTIONS FOR GILPIN BOOK.

1. When was the Arts & Crafts Guild started?
2. Were you the first Navaho to manage it?
3. Is $350,000. the correct figure for volume of business at the present time?
4. Which was the first Tribal enterprise, the Guild, Sawmill, or something else?
5. Would you send me a brief biography of yourself with dates of your management of the guild and the Tribal resources etc?
6. In making baskets how many (roughly) women are making them to-day? And is Sumac the only material used? (This is a question I have not gotten the correct answer for).
7. Your telephone number. If you should want to call me for anything my number is above and call me collect.
