

July 26, 65.

Dear Herbert:-

It was very good to see all of you and I am very grateful for your opinion and corrections on the Ceremonial part of my text. I have been working hard since I got home and am just about ready to turn the manuscript over to a professional typist. Two last things to check with you. 1. The rainbow necklace is made of abalone shell? 2. In one paragraph about the Blessing Way, you changed my word benediction to an Act of Balance. I am not sure that I quite understand this. My sentence is "As its name implies, it is a benediction, a blessing for a person;:::::." Is Blessing Way an Act of Balance?

I do not think I showed you what I had written about the pictograph. I enclose a carbon copy here. I would like to add the necklace.

I need help on the use of capitalization. Wherever I have refereed to Changing Woman, I have capitalized. What about medicine men? Wherever I have used the word Dineh I have capitalized it. I want to be prepared to face editors later.

Time is running short, I wont quite make it by aug.1, but perhaps a week later. I am not going to rush things and leave some things not checked or carefully corrected.

My very best to all of you,

Most sincerely
