

- Page 105 line 1 change to following "doubtless obtained through trade or capture from Spanish, Mexican or even Plains Indian tribes such as the Utes or Kiowa who sometimes came in contact with the Navaho.
- Page 107 line 24 Is this clear to you?
- Page 108 line 19 Add "Silver" before "solder"
- Page 109 line 9 change to "Sometimes the traders supplied stones that were already cut, etc"
- Page 110 line 12 typo. "jewelry"
- Page 111 line 16 change to "The round oval disks are made for etc."
 17 "Sometimes these are very simple etc"
 19 "Silver buckles are made for belts and bridles; other metals are used for girth buckles."
- Page 112 line 5 " Some are of hammered silver etc."
 line 16 typo "of many sizes"
 line 20 "Najah" also "Fatima"
- Page 113 line 12 change to " Several types of earrings are made; round circular hoops with unfastened silver beads which move, strung on the hoops: flat etc."
 " " line 19 "... and many shapes, such as buttons etc"
- Page 114 line 1 "... are made from twenty five cent pieces, hammered into thin bell shapes. The coins are pounded between a round headed bar and a corresponding receptacle ..."
 " " line 23 "Arts and Crafts Board, John Adair was appointed as the Guild's first manager. Mr. Adair's extensive knowledge of Indian crafts, made him the ideal person to come to this Navaho Guild, and he set a very high standard.
- Page 115 line 23 typo. "holds"