

am studying Spanish twice a week with ~~Barbara~~ Andrea Carletti, + enjoying thoroughly. As I am dead broke I want to sell 2 Santos, 1 Penitente cross, 2 Chimayo rugs + a saddle blanket, + 1 handsome crimson sash from the bar. Let me know if you have any suggestions as to how to dispose of them. Hutch is not interested.

So glad you are happy + busy.
Remember me to Bessie + Dorothy + my love to you -

ever your admiring friend Beauveau

The Beres are delighted with your book, also Miss Mae Donald.

Dear Laura

I have your book, a signed copy, + am simply enchanted with it.

It's a superb job + one to be extremely proud of - Congratulations I wrote to Mary Hutchell, c/o Sears Roebuck + received no answer of any kind. This was months ago, as soon as I got her address from you,

When you have time would you be kind enough to look her up, + get a receipt from her for 1 long Turquoise necklace with large pink shell inlaid with turquoise value $35.00

1 ribbed silver bracelet value $15
I want them both sold, but now I have no receipt of any kind.
Sorry to bother you, but I don't know how to go about it.
Dorothy Stewart told me to give my things to Mary Mitchell originally, so she crooked or just incurably lazy? She rounds to me just plain dishonest.

I still miss my friends out here, + find it hard to start life all over again in a new place. There met a lot of people, but they are just that —

There been an opera house in L.A. 5 operas for $12.50 in the peasant gallery.
A room at $1.50 a night. Not bad. They had was incomparably beautiful.
Maddie still wants to take Donald on a cruise; he checks it, + I think it's criminal! He has attacks frequently now.
