Dear Laura,

This is just an intermediate letter to you acknowledging yours of the 14th. I want to answer all of the questions in your letter more fully later on, as the manuscript itself is a very long one to digest completely and I haven't had all the time I need to work on it, and I would like to give each one of these queries careful consideration.

You are owed a final check on the delivery of the manuscript in its completed form, and I imagine this will be coming to you shortly.

Mother got back from Santa Fe apparently as healthy as ever, although I haven't actually seen her yet, but from her telephone conversations I take it that she had a fine summer there.

Sincerely,

Walter L. Goodwin, Jr.
