Dear Miss Gilpin:

Mr. Goodwin is away until after Labor Day, so I am sending you herewith pages 1 - 183 on THE RIO GRANDE, along with the preface, introduction, half title, ad card, title, dedication, verse, contents, page 237 Confucius quote, and appendix part title. Page proof for the entire book will be completed on August 31 and it will be sent on to you in batches such as this as soon as we receive them. This is a duplicate set. We are holding the marked set here which we have checked with the galleys and the dummy, and have transferred all markings to your duplicate.

Since Haddon has requested that each batch be returned as quickly as possible, we will hold the marked set here for three days in each case and then return it to the printer, so could you wire me immediately any corrections you may have (or the page number if it is lengthy so we can hold out that particular page until we get the correction from you by mail). In other words, unless we hear to the contrary from you, we will plan to send this group back to the printer on September 1, anything sent to you tomorrow on the 2nd, and what we send Wednesday on the 6th. If we can follow through on this schedule finished books will be ready on September 30th.

Sincerely,

Dorothy S. Farr
