Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your letter of October 16th and I am delighted to hear that the Santa Fe Book Store sold out at their party. They wired another order for fifty copies which we sent out immediately. I am sure that Mrs. Greenwood will do a good job on the book in time, even though she only sold some sixty books at the party.

I note that your exhibition is now definitely booked for December 1st at the Museum of Fine Arts in Dallas, and I hope that you were able to get this information off to Mr. Jervis at the hotel I gave you in a former letter. It is too late now to reach him on this trip and if you did not give him this information will you kindly advise so that I can write the dealers in Dallas about the exhibition.

I did not notice the omission of Duell, Sloan & Pearce from the circular and I am sure this is an oversight made by the Advertising Department but on the circulars that are made up for the trade I don't think that it really matters too much.

I will be interested in hearing how the affair came off in Colorado Springs. With best regards.

Yours very truly,

Jack Hurdon
Sales Manager
