Dear Laura:

The sales of the book go along quite well although nothing really fancy as yet, but as it gets around and is seen I have no fears for it.

I saw the very nice review in the Santa Fe "New Mexican" which you undoubtedly saw, and there have been others mostly from the smaller papers in that region and Texas. After we get a little collection I would like to send some duplicates out to you.

An author of ours, Mrs. Iola Fuller McCoy, has just moved out to Santa Fe. Her address is 917 Taos Road, Santa Fe. Some time ago she did an excellent book for us, and from what everybody tells me she is a delightful person, although I haven't met her myself, but I hope you will get a chance to look her up and I am sure you will find her charming.

Henriette Harris spent a night with us recently and is on her way back. It is nice to see someone from Santa Fe again and hear of the latest news.

Best wishes,

Walter L. Goodwin, Jr.
