Dear Miss Gilpin:

I have your letter of November 18 and thanks for your check enclosed and we have taken care of the order for an additional 25 copies of the book.

I am certainly surprised and sorry to hear of the Los Alamos affair but am glad that the books finally arrived on the afternoon of the meeting. The book is moving very nicely and I hope that the Dallas affair at McMurray's will be the means of selling a lot more books for you.

My best regards.

Yours sincerely,

Jack Hurdon
