Dear Laura:

Your letter of March eleventh has just arrived and in the same mail with it comes word from Walter Goodwin that he will be back here on the twenty-first. I will hold up the contracts until we can talk them over with Walter, who may be having a session with you between now and then. At the moment I can't see how it would be possible to include color in the new book, but perhaps this is a problem Walter will be able to cope with successfully. I'll be writing to you again soon after he returns.

Yrs.,
