Dear Laura:

Cap has initialed the change in paragraph IV on the Navaho Book contract. Will you initial the same change on the other copy which we still have and return this to us for our files?

We thought we would be going to press for the second printing of Rio Grande around this time, but so far we seem to have enough stock to carry us through the summer months without reprinting immediately. I have, as you know, the corrections which you made for the second printing which I picked up from you in Sante Fe. If there are any more send them in and we can have them incorporated.

May Wallace Ross wrote in to us listing the enclosed questions about historical data in your book. I may just pass it along to you because you will either want to answer or perhaps check their validity against your research material on these subjects. Her address is: 25022 Pennsylvania, Lomita, Cal.

She has a book to sell herself which may account for her careful analysis of yours.

Sincerely,

W. L. Goodwin Jr.
