Dear Laura:

Books won't be in on the second edition of THE RIO GRANDE until October. The September 9th date was a tentative one when the printer had not taken into consideration the paper delivery and the corrections.

I am sending you a duplicate set of the pages in which changes occur. We will be running the book this way unless there is some violent objection from you. If this does happen you had better wire us directly.

I am getting a dummy made up; 196 pages and the same size as before.

Practically all the European firms doing color work have New York offices. I am giving you a list with the addresses of several of them, under separate cover.

Everything else seems to be going well and I hope with you that we'll have a good Christmas sale on the new edition.

Sincerely,

Walter L. Goodwin, Jr.
