Dear Miss Gilpin:

I am glad that you like the second edition of "Rio Grande" so well and I too think that it is a beautiful looking book and I am putting through an order for three copies as requested. An author is not entitled to a free copy of the second edition.

We are also including three new jackets for the books which you received in your last shipment. The autographed copies came from the Edith Farnsworth Book Store in Cold Springs. She had sold a great many copies but wanted to keep the balance for a while longer but when we were running low on the first edition, we asked her to return some of them. However, she did keep a few to take care of any requests she might have.

Here's hoping we have a nice Christmas sale on the book this year.

Very truly yours,

Jack Hurdon
