Dear Laura:

We haven't had any word for such a time now that we wonder how things have been going along.
Did you manage to cope with the Life people successfully? I do hope so. Tell us the news when you get a chance, won't you?

Yrs.,

P. S. Since writing the above, I have spotted a Harvard University Press announcement of a book entitled NAVAHO MEANS PEOPLE: ("Photographs by Leonard McCombe, text by Evon Z. Vogt and Clyde Kluckhohn. The most revealing picture to date of the Navaho's age-old civilization. 184 photographs.
8½ x 11. November 9, $5.00") Do you know about this?
