Dear Laura:

Your letter of the twenty-fifth arrived on the twenty-seventh and within forty-eight hours the two large folders of photographs were delivered to our office. Does this mean they decided the question so very promptly? Such speed seems ominous and Charles and I fear the worst. What is the news?

Meantime, however, we have of course looked through the albums with care and zest. What wonderful things these pictures are! We'll keep them safe in a safe until we hear from you.

Yrs.,
