Gentlemen:

The Editorial Board of our high school annual, El Cenizo, has asked me to write you concerning permission to use a picture from Laura Gilpin's excellent THE RIO GRANDE, RIVER OF DESTINY.

Our city is located on the Rio Grande and there has been considerable interest among the students in Miss Gilpin's book. They would like very much to use the illustration on pages 128 and 129 as end sheet illustration.

Although this is a comparatively small high school -- about 500 students -- the year book has been commended. This year the cover will be black and gold and the whole book black and white. We would very much appreciate knowing whether permission to use the illustration could be granted and what charges would be made.

Sincerely,

(signed)
